

The reason of painting ABYDOS by Santiago MP

Abydos – Inner Asylum of my wicked dreamy mind

The realization of the Abydos' paintings were born as a need to express an own interpretation of melodies, lyrics, and deep feelings.

„I was never so close to music as I did hearing, reading, living Abydos.“

Music liberates the mind into new dimensions.

„Fly opened the doors to a place of teariness and braveness, his life moved me deeply.“

Being able to paint music is a great experience, surely a magical key to new horizons.

„I want to thank Andy Kuntz for allowing me to enter the world of Abydos, for everyone a different place, the other side, your own fantasy“

Painting ABYDOS

The inspiration of the paintings based just on the songs of Abydos and the fantasy of the artist.

„I painted that, what I was hearing, how I felt the songs, just imagination powered by music.“

All paintings were elaborated primary with acrylic on canvas. Some of them have other elements as sand, styrofoam, and gypsum.
